Kuantan: Universiti Malaysia Pahang Publisher (PUMP) unveiled 21 books written by lecturers and staff from various faculties and responsible centres (PTJ) in conjunction with the Quality and Innovation Day here recently.

The books, which had been written throughout the year and based on their own expertise, covered all categories. PUMP Director Assoc. Prof. Dr. Mohd Ghani Awang said it was the second launching held which was a mark of appreciation for their work to revitalise publication works in the university.

UMP Vice Chancellor Prof. Dato' Dr. Daing Nasir Ibrahim officially launched the event. Also present were Deputy Vice Chancellor (Student Affairs and Alumni) Prof. Datuk Dr. Yuserie Zainuddin, Deputy Vice Chancellor (Academic and International Affairs) Prof. Datuk Dr. Nik Mohd Yunus and Acting Registrar Abdul Rahman Safie.

“We are grateful to the faculties which have contributed a lot of their works and manuscripts. Among them are the Centre of Modern Language and Humanity Science (PBMSK), Faculty of Industrial Management (FIM), Faculty of Civil Engineering and Natural Resources (FKASA), Faculty of Electrical and Electronics Engineering (FKEE) and Faculty of Science and Industry (FIST).

“The involvement of non-academic staff is also seen as very good this year as they have come up with a book titled, ‘Konvokesyen UMP: Sejarah dan Pengurusan’ (UMP Convocation: History and Management). It is written by the Academic Management Division (BPA) staff,” he said.

Mohd Ghani said PUMP would also like to congratulate the author of Database System, Prof. Abdullah Embong, for winning the best book, as well as to the International Journal of Automotive and Mechanical Engineering (IJAME) and Journal of Mechanical Engineering and Sciences (JMES) for the SCOPUS indexing last year.
