To add some thrill to the night, the audience were welcomed by the organiser, CMLHS Welfare and Recreational Unit, with a special 10-second video session. Most were supportive in their feedback and appearance which complemented the theme for the night, 'East Meet West.'

They enjoyed a montage presentation of 2010 activities after inspirational speeches from the Dean, Professor Dr. Abdul Jalil Borham and the programme director. Thanks to the technical team, the presentation managed to evoke memories, trigger excitement and create a chatty ambience. Noor Azlan, the emcee for the night, doubled the effect especially during the lucky-draw moments in which the gifts were sponsored by the dean himself, Rashidi Abas and UMP Welfare and Sports Club.

The night became livelier when the Beijing Trip group members presented their banner to audience. The group was to depart on 15 December 2010 for a five-day trip.

The night continued with tokens of recognition presented to former deans, Associate Professor Ainol Haryati Ibrahim, Professor Dr. Abdul Jalil Borham, Associate Professor Dr. Muhammad Nubli Abdul Wahab and Nor Ashikin Abdul Aziz. CMLHS Appreciation Night 2010 ended with the launching of the new CMLHS portal. Check out <http://cmlhs.ump.edu.my>. Congratulations to all!

It's Ahmad & Najja Again!

Jamiaah Noor Rahmad

11 July 2010. Taking place at the Premium Lane, Kuantan Plaza, CMLHS associates once again gathered for this year's CMLHS Dean's Trophy Indoor Bowling Tournament. 2010 became the second year in a row for Najjahul Huda Hassan, to be crowned as Champion of Bowling Gutter for female category while Ahmad Ibrahim qualified for the male category.

Meanwhile, Abd Latip Hj Dris with 473 pins emerged as the winner, with Mohd Edoazry Hamzah (390) and Mohammad Baihaqi Hasni (380) getting the second and third place respectively for the Male Category. The Female Category on the other hand, saw an intense competition for the top three places. With only three extra pins, Zuraini Suhaimi secured the championship with Jamiaah Noor Rahmad (355) as the first runner up and Syahrina Ahmad (354) as the second runner up.

Congratulations to all the winners! And to the less fortunate ones, better luck next year! A big "Thank you!" also goes out to the Management Team who has generously contributed to the lucky draw prizes as well as to all the associates who turned up for the tournament, making the event a buoyant from start to finish.

CMLHS Eid ul-Fitr Celebration

Ahmad Ibrahim

6 November 2010. CMLHS Welfare and Recreational Unit (UNIK) organised a get-together, 'A Welcoming Get-together for Eid ul-Fitr' at the aisle on the top floor of Chancellery Building at lunch time.

Besides the main course, CMLHS members came with pot luck which was set according to departments namely fruits and salads by Modern Languages Department, desserts from Foreign Languages Department, some homemade cookies prepared by Human Sciences Department while the administrative unit including Technical Unit served colourful cup cakes and cute pots of dried fruits. The centre's management added the dishes with a treat of sate ayam and sate daging. Besides bountiful pot luck, everybody enjoyed the main dish for the event which were nasi beriani with ayam masak merah and dalca along with sirap drink.

The Dean handed the grand prize for the lucky draw to Dr. Nik Aloesnita.

The blue backdrop and Raya music playing in the background contributed to the lively atmosphere getting everybody in the raya mood regardless of different races and religions among CMLHS members. The celebration not only managed to satisfy the appetites of those who attended, it also allowed everyone to put work aside for awhile to mingle around to get know each other more.

The emcee gave away the best female costume award to Dr. Zailin.

Dr. Andrew for the best male costume.
