

Beautiful Scenery of UMP in "Namaku Bedah"

Pekan, 14 February- A picturesque scenery of UMP are the reason for Tanah Beris Film Sdn Bhd (TBFP) choosing UMP as the background for their latest drama 'Namaku Bedah'. This 20 episode comedy genre drama will be aired starting 5th February 2017 in TV9 Kelakarama slot.

TBFP is a production company that produce comedy and reality life drama. Lara Cinta Ameena, Mencari Indah, Tangisan Izara and Rajuk are a few numbers produce by TBFP.

According to the director, Shuhaimi Lua Abdullah, 'Namaku Bedah' is a story of Bedah who is ashamed of her own name and want to change it to Tengku Anis before entering the university.

"Various attempts have been made but failed. After entering the university, she feels that her decision to change her name was a big mistake and regret doing it" he added.

Drama directed by Shuhaimi is an adaption from a novel by Mohd Sharemy Ikmal. Although it is a comedy genre, but full with advice and positive vibes. As for Shuhaimi UMP's strategic location with a beautiful landscape has attracted him to do the shooting here.

In the recent hi tea event between management of UMP, TBFP Production and the drama casts, UMP Vice Chancellor express his hope that this partnership will benefit UMP in showing its beauty and facilities to the public. This can indirectly attract prospective students to choose UMP as their first choice university.

Filming of this drama also took place at Students Affairs and Alumni Department, Academic Management Division, Safety Office, Property Management and Development Office, University Health Centre, 5th Residential College, Sports and Cultural Centre and Vice-Chancellor's Office.
