Dean's Message

Welcome Back! I hope that each of you had a wonderful Hari Raya Eidul-Fitri celebrations and enjoyed special time with family and friends. Time away from our everyday tasks can be remarkably restorative. I am confident that, as always, you return to your work and responsibilities with renewed enthusiasm and vigor.

Well, we are now in the midst of this year and it's the time to look back and as well as ahead. In sum, 2017 brings achievements for FIM. Amongst the noteworthy are ABEST 21 accreditation for MBA program, organizing 1st FGIC conference which has attracted researchers and industry professionals all over the Malaysia and establishment of FIM learning factory. There will be many other academic achievements such as ITEX Innovative awards, research grants as well as organizing events like Strategic planning workshop, 2nd series of UMP Business forum, CEO Faculty program, Industrial projects and Entrepreneur seminar. And ahead to this, where we must strengthen our commitments even further.

Thank you for all that you do to make FIM such a thriving and dynamic Faculty.

With my best wishes for a healthy and productive year.

Dr. Ridzuan Bin Darun

MBA Accreditation

The goal of an academic accreditation is to ensure that education provided by institutions of higher education meets acceptable levels of quality. For achieving this aim, UMP MBA received full school membership by The Alliance on Business Education and Scholarship for Tomorrow (ABEST21) during March 2017. This full membership is for business schools striving to provide high quality of management education. The accreditation was conferred after a rigorous process of application submission, self-evaluation, review, on-site interview, final review and ratification.

FIM Learning Factory

FIM Start-up Learning Factory was initiated to provide hands-on experience to the students. It was conceived to expose the students on industrial work experience in a complete value stream from raw materials to the shipped products based on a real industrial site. It has 12 work stations and one wrapping machine. Students can gain through experience by implementing the classroom concepts and allow them to create innovative solutions to solve industry problem in a real manufacturing environment. A knowledge sharing session was also conducted on 24th February 2017. Faculty Members of ESB Business School, Reutlingen University, Germany shared their experience on teaching-learning through the learning factory.

FGIC First Conference on Governance and Integrity

The “FGIC 1st Conference on Governance and Integrity 2017” was jointly organized by Yayasan Pahang, FIM’s Governance and Integrity Centre (FGIC) Universiti Malaysia Pahang and Malaysian Institute of Corporate Governance (MICG).

The event covered two days. Day 1 was the Conference on Governance and integrity for State Owned Enterprises with three forums included. Forum 1 focuses on the Corporate Governance and Integrity in State Owned Enterprises; Forum 2 discusses on the initiatives to encourage Corporate Governance and Integrity; and Forum 3 is about the Autonomy and Governance in Institutions of Higher Learning. The conference was together with the launching of the Anti-Bribery Management System Checklist by Menteri Besar Pahang and also the launching of the Journal of Governance and Integrity.

Day 2 was the Conference on Governance and Integrity towards a Better Malaysia. It is for both academia and industry to share relevant issues on governance and integrity. There were three concurrent sessions: public, private and University. For each concurrent session, papers from both academia and industries will be presented in order to share ideas and knowledge from different perspectives with the attempt of bridging the gaps between the academia and the industries. 30 papers have been presented during the concurrent sessions.

Strategic Planning Workshop

FIM scheduled two days Strategic Planning Workshop from 23rd to 25th March 2017 at Philea Mines Beach Resort, Selangor. The workshop was attended by all the FIM staff. The Dean, Dr. Ridzuan Bin Darun has addressed the opening session of the workshop and take a glimpse of 2017 annual goals and objectives. The purpose of this annual Faculty Strategic Planning Workshop is to engage the invited participants in the discussion and finalization FIM 2017 SKT which include academic excellence, income generation, innovation, publication, research, branding and faculty initiatives. The group discussions and presentations have provided the participants an insight into the SKT processes and align these with the Dean's 2017 mandate and requirements.

UMP Business Forum 2.0

German Language and Cultural Camp 2017

The camp has been conducted in Peladang Setiu Agro Resort. Forty students and five lecturers participated. On the first day ice-breaking session and treasure hunt were conducted. The activities included singing and talking in German. On the second day did Explorace. The students need to remember sentences in German to pass through any checkpoint. The most interesting part in Explorace is where the participants had to complete flying fox over the pond.

In two other games Graphicbeschreibung and 'Mix and match' the students were required to know and remember German words. Participants enjoyed night walk in the reserve forest where fireflies welcomed them.

On the third day, the closing ceremony was conducted where the winners are announced. The best male participant was Lance and the best female participant was Agnes. After that we returned to UMP after stopping at Penarik Beach to enjoy fried fish and squids. The participants also enjoyed the beautiful scenery at the beach.

CEO @ Faculty Programme

The CEO @ Faculty Programme brings together top local and international CEOs and industry players to share their knowledge and experiences with students and the faculty. In this regard, more than 500 students participated in an Industrial Talk by CEO program with Dr. Hari Narayanan, Managing Director at Motorola Solutions Malaysia Sdn. Bhd. This talk was organized on 22nd February 2017, by Faculty of Industrial Management and Faculty of Computer Systems & Software Engineering in collaboration with Industry Partnership & Community Relation Office (JJIM). Dr. Hari Narayanan gave an insight on Risk Management in Industry.

Coffee Talk: Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow in Project Management

The session was held as part of our annual activities with Adjunct Professor Dr. Rosli Nekmat. He is the President of Association of Construction Project Managers Malaysia (ACPM), as well as the Managing Director of UR Group of Companies and also the Principal for Urusbudi Transplant. He has more than 30 years' experience in planning, engineering, construction and project management; especially in the transportation related projects.

He shared his views on the evolution of Project Management and mentioned that Project Management is actually managing a change or transition in an organization. He also discussed the current Project Management success model which is no longer restricted to only three (3) elements: time, budget and scope, but also incorporates 'value creation' to fully satisfy the stakeholders.

Dr. Rosli also shared his view on the perspective of Project Management within the context of Industrial Management and also how Project Management may compliment many other industries namely primary, secondary, tertiary and quarterly industries. At the end of the session, he shared with the rest of the audience on the way forward of Project Management knowledge and focus.

Innovation Awards

Community Service Project

Written by: KHAIRUL ROZKI & TAN JIA SHUN

On Friday, 28th April 2017, students from Faculty of Industrial Management conducted a study to explore about homeless citizens. They found that many of homeless are lacking of motivation. The main reasons that led them became homeless were due to their inability to hold jobs, poor social skills, and inability to cope with daily activity. They have no social support and were shuttle back and forth between services that provided when public health care provide help to them. This is because they are difficult to deal with people. Also, a lot of homeless suffer from emotional homelessness.

In order to reduce the homeless problem, students committee from Faculty Industrial Management under subject Principle of Management 2016/2017 Semester 2, Section 02G with guidance of lecturer Madam Siti Airin Binti Abdul Ghani decided to do a community service project for homeless with the title Corporate Social Responsibility Homeless or “CSR HOMELESS”. The venue that have been chosen were The Store, Stadium, in front of Masjid Sultan Ahmad Shah and Masjid Sultan Ahmad Shah, Kuantan. The students provided hot meals, drinks, biscuits, handkerchief and soap to the homeless people.
