ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

First and foremost, I would like to express my sincere gratitude to my supervisor Dr. Liu Yao, co-supervisor Mr. Mohd Hanafiah Bin Ahmad for their patience and valuable guidance throughout the research and writing of this thesis. Their patience and caring always motivated me to perform my best in this research. I would not have been able to complete this research without the brilliant guidance from Dr. Liu Yao, Mr. Mohd Hanafiah Bin Ahmad. Especially Dr. Liu Yao, she always guides each step for the learning process. Next, many thanks to my friends for offering help and friendly advice during the research work. The toughness and happiness we have had will become the sweetest memory in my life. Each is a blessing, and I could not have done this without them.

Million yet warm thanks from the bottom of my heart to my beloved parents, brothers and my loved ones, who spiritually supported and stood by me all the time during my study in the research. The endless love is always the driving force that cheers me up in every up and down in my life. No words can describe how I treasure the sacrifice they made, I will love them for the rest of my life.

CHAPTER 4 RESULTS AND DISCUSSION

4.1 Introduction

4.2 Result of Pilot Test

4.3 Descriptive Analysis
  4.3.1 Profiles of Leader Respondents
  4.3.2 Profiles of Employee Respondents

4.4 Reliability test (Cronbach’s Alpha)

4.5 Validity Test (Factor Analysis)
  4.5.1 Sample Adequacy
  4.5.2 Varimax Rotation

4.6 Single Mean T-Test (Analysis of the Levels of Factors)

4.7 Normality Test (P-P PLOTS)

4.8 Correlation Analysis (Testing Hypothesis)
  4.8.1 Testing relationship between personality and leadership style (H1-H5)
  4.8.2 Testing relationship between personality and employee engagement (H6-H10)
  4.8.3 Testing relationship between leadership style and employee engagement

4.9 Multiple Regression Test
  4.9.1 Regression test for OCEAN personality and Task-Oriented leadership style
