

The practices of green maintenance at Islamic student residential building in east coast region

Mohammad Affendy¹, Mohd Nasir Ayub², Liu Yao³, Diyana Kamarudin³

¹Faculty of Engineering Technology, Universiti Malaysia Pahang, Malaysia

²Academy of Contemporary Islamic Studies (ACIS), Universiti Teknologi MARA (UiTM)
Merbok, Kedah, Malaysia

³Faculty of Industrial Management, Universiti Malaysia Pahang, Malaysia

affendi@ump.edu.my¹

ABSTRACT

The green maintenance practices in Malaysia based on the need of occupants and user activities. In recent years, green maintenance concept has become the common interest of numerous disciplines. The concept of green maintenance for Islamic approach in Islamic student's residential building were not in appropriate, The need to have a well practices in green maintenance for the Islamic student residential building. However, most of the buildings were poorly managed and not well green application practices relation with comfortability and safety adopt. The green maintenance in practices integrated within sustainability features to produce conducive safety in building. Interviews was conducting among of 30 students being interviewed. The survey to identify their knowledge awareness in term of green maintenance and safety practices. The results indicate that the need to improve the green maintenance practices at the student's residents and reduce the uncomfotability to the student's residents due to wealth their day life activities.

Keywords: Green maintenance; student residential; safety