In Pantai Cempaka, Kuantan, on May 18, 2024, a group of 21 staff from Occupational Safety and Health research cluster gathered at Dewan Permata Camar for an inspiring event titled "Publication Coaching: From Results to Submission in 8 Hours" led by Assoc. Prof. Dr. Mohd Herwan Sulaiman. The event aimed to help participants learn how to get their writing published. Assoc. Prof. Dr. Mohd Herwan, known for his expertise and friendly approach, guided everyone through the process in a clear and easy-to-understand way, making sure no one felt left out.

The day began with a warm welcome from Ts. Dr Azizan Ramli- The Deputy Dean (Research & Postgraduate Study), setting a friendly atmosphere for learning. Attendees listened eagerly as Assoc. Prof. Dr. Mohd Herwan shared practical tips and advice on how to write research papers that get noticed.

Through interactive activities and group discussions, participants got the chance to practice their writing skills and get feedback from Assoc. Prof. Dr. Mohd Herwan and their peers. By the end of the day, everyone left feeling more confident about their writing abilities and ready to take the next steps toward getting their work published.
